

LABUAN FOUNDATION

With the promulgation of the new legislation in 2010, Labuan is one of the few common law jurisdictions offering investors a choice of common law trusts and civil law foundations.

Traditionally used in civil law countries, a foundation is tailor-made for high net worth individuals, families as well as corporations and non-profit organisations who wish to have control over their assets and businesses whilst being accorded legal protection. All aspects of Labuan Foundations are governed by the Labuan Foundations Act 2010 (“LFA”). A Shariah compliant version is also available pursuant to the Labuan Islamic Financial Services and Securities Act 2010 (“LIFSSA”) whereby its aims and operations must be in compliance with Shariah principles. Guidelines on the Establishment of Labuan Foundation including Islamic Foundation were issued and revised by Labuan Financial Services Authority (“Labuan FSA”) on 4th April 2016 (“Guidelines”).

Foundation is a registered body corporate with a separate legal entity, usually established by the founder to hold assets with the objective of managing these assets for the benefit of a class of persons on a contractual basis. It is typically used for private wealth management, business succession, asset preservation, charitable purposes and other lawful activities.

The legislation in Labuan requires the engagement of services of a Labuan IBFC registered trust company to act as its establishment agent and secretary of the foundation in Labuan.

Purpose and object of Labuan foundation

Labuan foundation may be established to manage its own property for any lawful purpose which may be charitable or non-charitable.
