> Annual tax return

Under the self-assessment system, submission should be made within seven (7) months from the end of the accounting period of the company which constitutes the basis period for the year of assessment.

Audit exemption of private companies

Based on the CA 2016, the Registrar may exempt any private company from having to appoint an auditor according to the criteria and conditions set.

Qualifying Criteria for audit exemption –

- > Dormant companies
- > Zero-Revenue Companies
- > Threshold-Qualified Companies

Exempt private company

Based on the CA 2016, “exempt private company” means a private company:

- > where beneficial interest of shares in the company are not held directly or indirectly by any corporation i.e. no corporate shareholder; and
- > which has not more than 20 members none of whom is a corporation

If a private company fulfils the above definition of exempt company, it has the option of filing an exempt certificate to the Registrar instead of the full audited financial statements. The exempt certificate provides information that -

- > The company is and has at all relevant times been an exempt private company;
- > A duly audited financial statements and reports required under the CA 2016 has been circulated to its members; and
- > As at the date to which the financial statements has been made up, the company appeared to have been able to meet its liabilities as and when the liabilities fall due.
