

LABUAN INTERNATIONAL COMMODITY TRADING COMPANY

The Global Incentives for Trading (“GIFT”) programme was established to encourage companies to use Malaysia as an international trading base for specified types of commodities to be conducted on in, from or through Labuan.

On 17 April 2020, the Labuan Financial Services Authority (“Labuan FSA”) issued a revised Guidelines on the establishment of Labuan International Commodity Trading Company (“LITC”) under the GIFT programme setting out the parameters relating to the establishment and operation of the LITC.

Application for license

Any person intending to undertake Labuan international commodity trading business under the GIFT programme may submit an application to Labuan FSA. Upon receiving approval from the Labuan FSA, the applicant is required to establish a LITC.

Kensington Trust Labuan Limited is a licensed trust company in Labuan and may assist you with application for LITC, establishment and administration of your LITC.

Global Incentives for Trading programme

The GIFT programme is a framework of incentives for traders that are undertaking the trading of the following physical products and related derivatives, and use Malaysia as their international trading base to undertake international commodity trading business in Labuan IBFC.

- > Petroleum and petroleum-related products including liquefied natural gas (LNG)
- > Minerals
- > Agriculture products
- > Refined raw materials
- > Chemicals
- > Base minerals
- > Coal

In setting Malaysia as its trading base, LITC is expected to have some or all of the following functions (but not limited to) in Malaysia:-

- > Strategic management;
- > Banking, finance and treasury management;
- > Risk management;
- > Market research and product portfolio development;
- > Logistics management;
- > Global procurement; or

 - (c) If the LITC has more than five (5) related companies to carry on the qualifying activity, the LITC shall also have additional one (1) full-time employee in its business operational office in Labuan for every addition of up to five (5) related companies in a group of companies.

Dealings with resident

All LITC companies are allowed to conduct transactions with Residents of Malaysia in Ringgit Malaysia effective from 1 January 2019.

“Resident” here means:

- > in relation to a natural person, a citizen or permanent resident of Malaysia; or
- > in relation to any other person, a person who has established a place of business, and is operating in Malaysia.
- > and includes person who is declared to be a resident pursuant to paragraph 214(6)(a) of the Financial Services Act 2013 and paragraph 225(6)(a) of the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013.

Attraction of GIFT programme

- > Corporate tax rate of 3% of audited chargeable profits
- > Stamp duty exemption on all instruments for Labuan business activities.
- > Tax exemption on dividends received by or from the LITC.
- > Operational cost in Malaysia is comparatively lower than in other commodities hubs across the world.
- > World class storage facilities in Malaysia.
