

LABUAN INSURANCE BROKER

A Labuan insurance and insurance related company in Labuan IBFC is governed by Part VII of Financial Services & Securities Act 2010. A Labuan insurance broker may establish a takaful broking window with no separate licence required.

“Labuan insurance broker” means a person who is licensed to –

- a) arrange Labuan insurance business on behalf of prospective or existing policy owners;
- b) arrange Labuan reinsurance business on behalf of any insurer seeking reinsurance; or
- c) analyse the financial circumstances of another person and provides a plan to meet that other person’s financial needs and objectives, whether or not a fee is charged in relation thereto.

Approved and restricted business activities

(1) APPROVED ACTIVITIES

- Direct insurance business
- Life insurance
- Reinsurance business

(2) RESTRICTION

The Labuan insurance broking company is prohibited from dealing with residents (except for high net-worth individuals, reinsurance and others as defined by Labuan FSA from time to time) and broke for direct Malaysian risks.

“High net worth individuals” in the above context are defined as persons who spend an equivalent of not less than RM20,000 in any foreign currency on single premium policy or an equivalent of not less than RM15,000 per person in any foreign currency on annual premium policy.

A licensed Labuan insurance broker may handle the insurance or reinsurance of domestic insurance business, transacted in the Malaysian currency provided that such activity does not include any activity that is regulated or prohibited under other written law in Malaysia.

Application for licence

Application for a licence to carry out Labuan insurance broking activities can be made to the Director General of Labuan FSA.

Labuan IBFC taxation system

- > Labuan Business Activity Tax Act 1990 (“LBATA”) governs the imposition, assessment and collection of tax on a Labuan business activity carried on in, from or through Labuan.
- > Labuan entities that carry on a non-Labuan business activity are subject to the provisions of the Malaysian Income Tax Act, 1967 (ITA).
- > “Labuan business activity” means:
  - > a Labuan trading or a Labuan non-trading activity carried on in, from or through Labuan,
  - > excluding any activity which is an offence under any written law.
- > Pursuant to the Labuan Business Activity Tax (Requirements for Labuan Business Activity) Regulations 2021:
  - > Labuan trading activity has been restricted to license business activities and other trading activities only.
  - > Labuan non-trading activity has been categorised to 2 different types of holding activities, namely Pure Equity Holding and Non-Pure Equity Holding.

Substance Requirement under LBATA

- > Pursuant to section 2B(1) (b) of LBATA, the Labuan entities shall, for the purpose of the Labuan business activity, have :-
  - (i) an adequate number of full time employees in Labuan; and
  - (ii) an adequate amount of annual operating expenditure in Labuan, as prescribed by the Minister by regulations made under this Act.
- > Section 2B (1A) of LBATA provides that a Labuan entity carrying on a Labuan business activity which fails to comply with the substance requirement for a basis period for a year of assessment shall be charged to tax at the rate of twenty four per cent (24%) upon its chargeable profits for that year of assessment.
- > To benefit under LBATA, a Labuan insurance broker will need to have a minimum of two (2) full time employees in Labuan and minimum annual operating expenditure of RM100,000 in Labuan.

Dealings with resident

All Labuan entities are allowed to conduct transactions with Residents of Malaysia in Ringgit Malaysia subject to the filing of a notification to Labuan FSA within 10 days from the transaction effective date.

“Resident” here means:

- > in relation to a natural person, a citizen or permanent resident of Malaysia; or
- > in relation to any other person, a person who has established a place of business, and is operating in Malaysia.
- > and includes person who is declared to be a resident pursuant to s.43 of the Malaysian Exchange Control Act 1953.

The amount of deductions allowed in respect of payments made by Residents to Labuan entities are as follows:-
