About This Talk

Exchange of information between tax administrations is the most effective way of combating international tax avoidance and evasion. Topics will cover:

- OECD work in this area
- Key concepts of exchange of information highlighting the balance between the legal obligation to exchange and the limitations that protect taxpayers rights in exchange of information
- Other forms of exchange such as spontaneous, automatic, simultaneous tax examinations
- How to organise a Competent Authority Unit on how to raise the awareness of tax examiners about the potential of exchange of information, and how to make a request for information and to respond to a request
