Speaker's Profile:

Mr Mike Grover

Mike is an international tax specialist. He is retired but retains an interest in international taxation. He developed this interest whilst having the good fortune to practice in a number of important Asian cities, including Kuala Lumpur, as a senior tax partner with one of the world's leading international tax firms. He enjoys helping private wealth and business to better understand international tax laws and trends and make a contribution towards the achievement of their personal and business goals. Mike currently lives in Kuala Lumpur and divides his time between sporting activities, mentoring and keeping updated on international tax developments in the area of private wealth.
