This was very much the case with JTC and our formal alliance is built upon a founding charter principle that sets out five fundamental shared values of loyalty, honour, respect, transparency and integrity.

The charter's other specification is to foster a family environment universally across our combined business.

Our founding charter was established in 2013 to expand our global network and meet the demands of our international clients, particularly in Europe and the Americas. It has since been followed up with continued investment by JTC, leading to the creation of JTC Kensington.
